

This is one law that we need to uphold. I feel that if I need a company's services I will be happy to contact them. I do not need someone interrupting my dinner with my family or at 9pm at night because the chances are greater that I'll be home.